

Charges and Sales Policy

Any fees and charges applied contribute in part to the running cost of the Library service. Sales income is also reinvested into the service.

The Library reviews charges and sales prices on a regular basis. Both are set at a rate to cover expenditure costs as a minimum requirement.

Charges

There are no charges for:

- borrowing books or other written material, DVDs, CDs, or jigsaws
- downloading eBooks or audiobooks
- late return of loaned items
- reservations and requests
- use of the Fab Lab

Charges are made for:

- Lost or damaged books/DVD cases
- Photocopying and printing
- Laminating
- Fab Lab materials: 3D printing, vinyl cutting, sublimation printing, wide format printing, etc

Sales

Sale items are offered with the purpose of providing materials of added value to library users, including:

- Memory sticks
- Book bags
- Other Library merchandise (including Fab Lab merchandise)
